

Working Class Artists That Inspire Me

Joan Littlewood, Actor - "The Mother of Modern Theater"

<https://www.rsc.org.uk/miss-littlewood/joan-littlewood-rebel-with-a-cause>

Maxine Peake, Actor - Bringing regional voices to stage and screen

<https://www.imdb.com/name/nm0668845/>

Caitlin Moran, Author <https://www.caitlinmoran.co.uk>

Self Esteem, Singer/song writer - <https://www.selfesteem.love>

Claire Bigley, Producer, Tmesis Theater & Physical Fest -

<https://www.tmesistheatre.com/train-with-us/wicked-women-creative-development-for-young-women/>

Jimmy Fairhurst & Louise Haggerty (Not Too Tame) this company does such great things for working class creatives and have put so much opportunity in front of me, forever grateful <https://www.nottootame.com>

Mike Noble - My brother, went to London with £20 in his pocket and a place at Drama Centre, inspires me every day! <https://www.imdb.com/name/nm4707183/>

My mum - Margaret Connell, Director, who raised us creatively.

Fox Irving, Amina Atique, Saphena Aziz, Marjorie Morgan, Maria Paul, Cara Macwilliam, Adiam Solomon, Rae Swift - My fellow women working class, who have inspired and impacted my practice more than they know

